Section 1

Par. 10.3 and Par. 10.4 shall be deleted and replaced with Par. 10.3–14 reading as follows:

"3. The voting rights of Company shareholders shall be limited so that none of them can exercise more than 10% of the total vote at the Company as at the day on which the General Meeting is held, with a proviso that for the purpose of determining the obligations of buyers of significant holdings of shares provided for in the Act on Public Offering, Conditions Governing the Introduction of Financial Instruments to Organised Trading, and Public Companies of July 29th 2005, and the Act on Insurance Activity of May 22nd 2003, such limitation of voting rights shall be deemed non-existent.

4. The limitation of voting rights referred to in Par. 10.3 shall not apply to shareholders specified in Par. 10.12.

5. For the purpose of limiting the voting rights pursuant to Par. 10.3, the votes of shareholders bound by a parent-subsidiary relationship shall be aggregated as described below.

6. A shareholder within the meaning of Par. 10.3 shall be any person, including a parent and a subsidiary of such person, directly or indirectly entitled to exercise voting rights at the General Meeting under any legal title, including persons who do not hold shares in the Company, in particular usufructuaries, pledgees, holders of rights under depositary receipts, as defined in the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments of July 29th 2005, as well as persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting despite having disposed of their shareholdings after the record date.

7. A parent or a subsidiary shall be understood as a person which:

1) meets the relevant criteria set forth in Art. 4.1.4) of the Commercial Companies Code, or

2) is a dominant company, a subsidiary or both a dominant company and a subsidiary within the meaning of the Act on Competition and Consumer Protection of February 16th 2007, or

3) is a parent, ultimate parent, subsidiary, lower-tier subsidiary, jointly-controlled entity or both a parent (including an ultimate parent) and a subsidiary (including a lower-tier subsidiary and a jointly-controlled entity) within the meaning of the Accountancy Act of September 29th 1994, or

4) exerts (in the case of a parent) or is subject to (in the case of a subsidiary) significant influence within the meaning of the Act on the Transparency of Financial Relations between State Authorities and State-Controlled Enterprises, as well as on Financial Transparency of certain Entrepreneurs, of September 22nd 2006, or

5) whose votes conferred by Company shares held directly or indirectly are aggregated with votes of other person or persons pursuant to the Act on Public Offering, Conditions Governing the Introduction of Financial Instruments to Organised Trading, and Public Companies of July 29th 2005, in connection with the holding, disposal or acquisition of significant holdings of shares in the Company.

8. Shareholders whose votes are aggregated or reduced pursuant to Par. 10.5-7 shall be jointly referred to as a Grouping. The aggregation of votes shall consist in adding up all the votes held by individual shareholders in a Grouping. The reduction of votes shall involve decreasing the total number of votes at the General Meeting held by shareholders in a Grouping. The reduction of votes shall be made as follows:

1) the number of votes of the shareholder holding the highest number of votes in the Company from among all the shareholders in a Grouping shall be reduced by the number of votes in excess of 10% of the total number of votes in the Company held by all the shareholders in the Grouping;

2) if despite the reduction referred to in Par. 10.8.1) above the total number of votes held by the shareholders in the Grouping exceeds the threshold specified in Par. 10.3, the number of votes held by the other shareholders in the Grouping is further reduced. Such further reduction shall be made in a sequence established based on the number of votes held by individual shareholders in the Grouping (from the highest to the lowest). The number of votes of the Grouping is further reduced until the number of votes held by the shareholders in the Grouping does not exceed 10% of the total vote at the Company;

3) if the sequence for the purpose of the reduction of votes referred to in Par. 10.8.1 or Par. 10.8.2 cannot be established due to the fact that one or more shareholders hold the same number of votes, the votes of shareholders holding the same number of votes shall be reduced proportionally, with fractional numbers rounded down to the whole number of shares. To the extent not provided for above, the rules set forth in Par. 10.8.1 and Par. 10.8.2 shall apply accordingly;

4) a shareholder whose voting rights have been limited shall in each case retain the right to exercise at least one vote;

5) the limitation of voting rights shall also apply to shareholders absent from the General Meeting.

9. In order to determine the basis for aggregation or reduction of votes, each of the Company's shareholders, the Management Board, the Supervisory Board, and individual members of these bodies, as well as the Chairperson of the General Meeting, may request that a Company shareholder subject to the limitation of voting rights disclose whether it is a parent or a subsidiary of any other Company shareholder within the meaning of Par. 10.7. The authority referred to in the previous sentence shall also include the right to request a Company shareholder to disclose the number of votes held individually or jointly with other shareholders with respect to which it is a parent or a subsidiary within the meaning of Par. 10.7. A person who fails to perform or improperly performs the disclosure obligation referred to in the first sentence may exercise its voting rights from a single share only, until the disclosure obligation is duly fulfilled, and any attempts to exercise its voting rights from the remaining shares shall be ineffective.

10. When in doubt, the provisions concerning the limitation of voting rights shall be interpreted in accordance with Art. 65.2 of the Civil Code.

11. The limitation of voting rights provided for in Par. 10.3 shall expire once the shareholding of a Company shareholder defined in Par. 10.12.1 falls below 5% of the Company's share capital.

12. The limitation of voting rights referred to in Par. 10.3 shall not apply to:

1) shareholders which as at the date of the General Meeting's resolution imposing the limitation of voting rights are holders of shares conferring more than 10% of the total vote at the Company;

2) shareholders acting together with shareholders defined in Par. 10.12.1 pursuant to agreements concerning joint exercise of voting rights.

13. Subject to the relevant provisions of the Commercial Companies Code, a material change may be introduced in the Company's business profile without the buy-out of Company shares held by the shareholders who do not agree to such a change.

14. Resolutions amending Par 10.3 to Par. 10.14 and Par. 18.3.3 may be adopted by a majority of at least four-fifths of the votes, provided that at least a half of the Company's share capital is represented at the General Meeting."

Section 2

Pursuant to the provisions of Art. 430.5 of the Commercial Companies Code and Art. 9.4 of the National Court Register Act of August 20th 1997 (consolidated text: Dz. U. of 2001, No. 17, item 209 as amended), the General Meeting authorises the Supervisory Board of the Company to prepare the consolidated text of the Articles of Association of Grupa LOTOS S.A., including the amendments introduced by virtue of this resolution.
